The extraordinary spa treatments (massages, facials, body treatments and rituals) were created to refresh the mind, body and spirit. Prior to a treatment, guests are encouraged to visit the spa's sauna, steam bath and showers. A full list of available treatments can be found on the Valentin Imperial Maya website.

DINING:

Valentin Imperial Maya's dining options invite guests to take their palate on a culinary adventure. Guests enjoy their meals in the modern and trendy atmosphere of the resort's nine international à la carte restaurants with dishes crafted by world-renowned chefs. Beachfront and casual dining are also available for lunch and breakfast. Reservations are not required at any of the resort's dining facilities.

Restaurant Le Marché

Specializing in international dishes and offering a variety of themed menus, Le Marché is open for both breakfast and lunch. The restaurant's large size allows for the perfect setting for a meal with a group of friends or business associates.

Il Olivo

Using authentic and quality ingredients, the menu at Il Olivo is inspired by traditional and new Italian-American cuisine.

L'Alsace

Using classic French cuisine as inspiration, the chefs at L'Alsace have created a menu of traditional dishes that focus on nutritional value. Prior to dinner, visit the restaurants extensive wine cellar and select a bottle to enjoy during your meal.

Ginger

Based on traditional and contemporary Japanese cuisine with Peruvian influences, Ginger offers a selection of different dinner items. Guests can dine at Tepanyaki tables or visit the Sushi bar along with an array of á la carte items.

La Hacienda

Based on traditional Mexican gastronomy with a contemporary touch, La Hacienda takes its culinary inspiration from three of the country's different states – Veracruz, Puebla and Yucatan.

Restaurant Tierra

The resort's steakhouse offers American Angus certified choice and prime quality cuts of meat, American-Argentinean side dishes and dressings. Dining in this open-air restaurant is the perfect place to enjoy an intimate candlelight dinner while enjoying the view of the Caribbean Sea.

Restaurant Mar

Using a wide variety of fresh fish and seafood, dishes are created using influences from New Orleans, Veracruz, Peru and Caribbean-style cuisine.

Taman Zari

An a la carte dining experience, offering guests rich Asian-inspired cuisine and unique dishes.

Lobster Pot

Overlooking the sea, the Lobster Pot invites guests to enjoy the authentic preparation of the Caribbean spiny lobster.

Additionally, there are eight bars located through the property, including the pool and beach area; meandering swim-up pool bar; lobby bar; Don Miguel: cigar bar, Salón Partagás; La Plaza, Sports and Music bar, and El Palenque.
